

Michael T. Jones, M.D.

is Southern California's Organic Concierge Holistic Menopause Physician

FOR MEN AND WOMEN

Dr. Jones has been practicing bioidentical and personalized hormonal organic, integrative, functional, alternative, holistic, nutritional wellness, and age management medicine since 2002.

Prior to opening his new private practice, he pioneered several gynecologic techniques, and a world first laparoscopic surgery for siblings with complete androgen insensitivity that are now the standard of care, and was one of the first two physicians involved in uterine artery embolization for non surgical treatment of uterine fibroids.

He has completed Cenegenics, and is presently accepting new patients at his new office.
